“DANCE WITH US”

Dear Friend of Dance,

Nothing could be finer . . . than having your name included as a member of Fort Wayne Ballet, Inc. for the 1979-80 Season.

We offer three types of membership — sustaining, patron, and donor. Voting privileges are the same for all. Members receive a newsletter “Fine Pointes”, published November, February and April.

Fort Wayne Ballet presents two major programs each year; one at the beginning of the Christmas season and the other, in the early Spring.

As an audience . . . you will become aware of the components that make a polished ballet through the choreography, costumes, music, makeup and especially our dancers; as they present themselves with pride, technique and theatrical know-how. Ballet training is a lifetime experience and we aim to whet your appetite for both modern and classical ballet! Fort Wayne Ballet offers much to the dancer and the audience.

We are proud to be part of the arts in our town. Our roots are strong, but we need your appreciation of the art of ballet to progress.

Come dance with us — through membership.

Cordially,

Marie Bloomquist
Membership Chairman

FORT WAYNE BALLET STAFF

JAMES FRANKLIN, CAROL HOEHN, MESHELE GLASS

JAMES W. FRANKLIN

James W. Franklin joined the Fort Wayne Ballet this year as Artistic Director. Having just concluded 6 years on the Lamar University Dance Staff (Beaumont, Texas) choreographing musicals, operas, dance concerts and his own jazz company, he will be resident choreographer for the Ballet Company. Mr. Franklin is a double Butler University Dance graduate (BA '59 — MA '71). His professional background is varied; summer stock, television and studies with major ballet schools (ABT, Joffrey, Ballet Russe, San Francisco Ballet). He has appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show, with Ballet Russe groups, Andre Egelevsky Ballet, off-Broadway, Anything Goes for Ron Field, and in all major casinos in Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe. For the past two years Mr. Franklin has taught jazz at the Houston Ballet Academy, School of the Houston Ballet.

CAROL CLAY-HOEHN

Carol Clay-Hoehn, Assistant Artistic Director and school principal is serving as a teacher-choreographer for Fort Wayne Ballet. Mrs. Hoehn graduated Magna Cum Laude in Dance from Butler University. She received the Indianapolis Civic Ballet Society Scholarship for further study which she used to attend the Teacher's Course at the Royal Academy of Dancing, London, England. She has been actively involved with the Academy syllabi throughout her career. Professionally she has appeared as lead dancer in five seasons with Starlight Musicals in Kansas City and Indianapolis, as soloist with the Columbus Civic Ballet, Columbus Theatre Ballet, Kerwin Theatre Ballet and as guest artist with the Toledo Symphony. Her choreographic efforts have been performed by several Midwest regional companies. This year she will be the director of our new apprentice company.

MARY K. PERKINS

Mary K. Perkins is a graduate of Fontbonne College, St. Louis, Missouri and studied at the National Academy of Ballet, New York. Mrs. Perkins teaches all levels of ballet and musical comedy at the Fort Wayne Ballet School. She also conducts the ballet ensemble classes at the Indiana-Purdue Regional campus.

In Fort Wayne, she has choreographed for the Fort Wayne Ballet, Civic Theatre, Arena Theatre, PIT Theater, St. Francis College, and local high schools.

MESHELE GLASS

Meshele Glass returns to teach classes which include Creative Dance, Ballet I and II. She is a product of the Fort Wayne Ballet and furthered her studies with Jean Paul Comelin (of Milwaukee). Meshele has appeared frequently with the Fort Wayne Ballet Company in leading roles. This summer she attended the Royal Academy of Dance teachers courses in London, England.

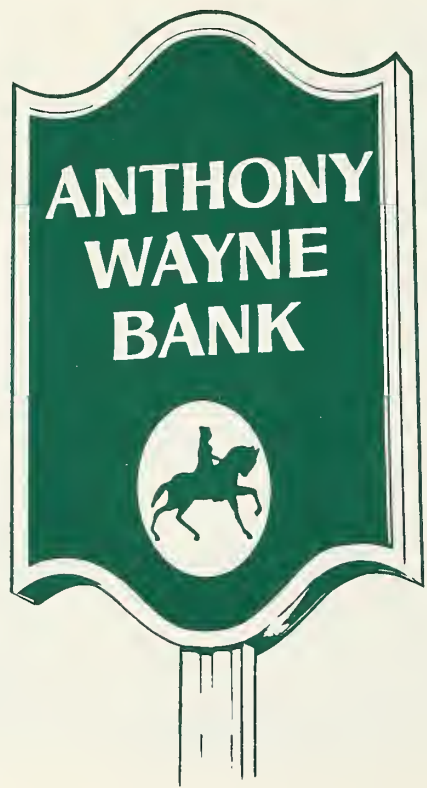

FROM THE PRESIDENT . . .

At long last Studio D is a reality. We hope many of you were with us to celebrate at the open house on May 20.

I look forward to greeting many of you at the Annual Meeting on Friday, May 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the Gallery of the Performing Arts Center. We will begin with a cash bar and hor d'oeuvres followed by a brief meeting to conduct the business of the corporation. We urge you to join us in honoring Mary K. Perkins as she completes her final year on our staff, and wish her well in her future endeavors. Closing the evening will be selections by the Fort Wayne Ballet Company, and our Apprentice Company will perform portions of their very successful elementary school presentation — with a special appearance by someone we all know and love. See you there!

This modern piece has been a Fort Wayne Arts community project. Each part of the work, sculpture, music, direction, costumes, choreography, and dancing have been or are executed by local artists. These combined skills have given us this emotionally charged total Theatre work.

Fort Wayne Dance Theatre wishes to express its thanks to Suzie Weaver for her selection and study guide of Shakespeare's Sonnets. Mrs. Weaver was instrumental in inspiring and coordinating the talents of the artists involved in the production of Sonnets.

Sonnets is supported by a grant from the Indiana Arts Commission and the National Endowment for the Arts.

TY

The "Ty" is, in fact, thank you in initials. Since no stunning title suggested itself to the choreographer, "Ty" came into use rather second-handedly and stayed to become the title of the ballet. This work was conceived as a gesture to several people who have been especially helpful to Mr. Franklin during his two years with Fort Wayne Ballet, Inc. The original concept expanded to all the people who have served the Academy and Company — on committees, on boards, doing books, technicians, giving legal advice, photographers, the Ballet Angels, the adults who appear in our Nutcracker — to you who support, guide and sponsor our Art, the "Ty" is dedicated.

MODULATION ROMANTIQUE ET MODERNE

MUSIC Handel / Jones / Bach
CHOREOGRAPHY James W. Franklin

This new trilogy by James Franklin is a piece tied together by costume, featuring three distinct styles of dance. Traditional choreography (Handel), Jazz-pointe (Jones) and Modern-ballet (Bach). This work stresses flexibility and the technical accomplishments of the dancers in three demanding pieces.

GUEST ARTISTS

CATHERINE YOSHIMURA

Catherine Yoshimura was born in Chicago where she received the majority of her training from Larry Long. She continued her studies in New York but returned to Chicago and danced with the Chicago Ballet. In 1976 she went to London to join Ballet International as a junior soloist which is where she was first partnered with Gerard Charles. This past Christmas Miss Yoshimura appeared in the Chicago production of The Nutcracker dancing soloist roles.

GERARD CHARLES

Gerard Charles was born in Folkestone, England, where at 13 he went to the Royal Ballet School and obtained the majority of his training. While still at school, he danced with the Royal Ballet at Covent Garden and upon graduation was offered a contract with London Festival Ballet. In the Spring of 1976 he joined Ballet International as a junior soloist touring South Africa and Europe. This past Christmas he was a soloist in the Chicago production of The Nutcracker.

FORT WAYNE DANCE THEATRE

Established in 1975, Fort Wayne Dance Theatre is a company of professionally trained dancers dedicated to promoting dance in the community. The company presents in-school programs for students and a variety of programs for community audiences.

This year Fort Wayne area artists have combined their arts with Dance Theatre to express Shakespeare's sonnets in a unique dramatic form. In Sonnets the concepts of love and human relationships expressed in Shakespeare's poetry find parallel images in dance, music and sculpture. The result is a dynamic realization Shakespeare was indeed "not of an age, but for all time."

ACADEMY OF THE FORT WAYNE BALLET

The Academy of the Fort Wayne Ballet is the official school of the Fort Wayne Ballet, Inc., a member of the Fort Wayne Fine Arts Foundation and the only non-profit organization of its nature in this city to be awarded that distinction.

Students of any ballet school in the Fort Wayne area who meet the requirements are eligible to audition before a panel of judges chosen by the Fort Wayne Ballet, Inc. for the purpose of selecting new dancers for the performing company or its apprentice group.

The three week summer session will run from June 9 to June 27, 1980. For further information, write:
